The Ancestry of
WILLIAM CARLTON

John Carlton, the father of William Carlton, was born in Craven County, N. C., on April 20, 1775, two days after Paul Revere made his famous ride; so this branch of the Carlton family came into being simultaneously with the United States of America. His father was Thomas Carleton, a Revolutionary soldier who served with the North Carolina troops. John Carlton grew to manhood in Duplin County, N. C., and there he married, on November 17, 1797, Nancy Ann Alderman, born November 17, 1775, daughter of David Alderman, a Revolutionary soldier, and Jemima Hall, his wife. David Alderman was son of Daniel Alderman and Abigail Harris. Daniel Alderman was son of Thomas Alderman and Mary Segrove and Thomas Alderman was son of William Alderman and Mary Case, the said William Alderman having come to Massachusetts from England about 1670.

The Case family is related to the Spencer family of England and America; and through this line our family connections can be traced back to a number of the Surety Barons who enforced the provisions of the Magna Charta after King John had been forced to sign that immortal document at Runnymede in 1215.

John Carlton and his family moved to Bulloch County, Ga., about 1821, and, a few years later, to Thomas County, where several of the children already had gone. The younger children grew to manhood and womanhood there, and most if not all of them married there. In the early 1850's John Carlton sold his possessions in Thomas County and moved to Madison County, Fla., where he spent his remaining years. He died February 26, 1868 and his wife of seventy years died on June 4, 1867. Both are buried in Friendship Cemetery near Moseley Hall, Fla., and their graves are plainly marked though the gravestones are small.

The children of John and Nancy Ann Alderman Carlton were as follows:

1. Rev. Thomas Carlton (1799-1841), who married Nancy Ward and later Lucretia Seward.
2. Polly Carlton (1801-1890), who married John Chastain and had issue.
3. Alderman Carlton (1803-1856), who married his cousin, Martha Maria Alderman. Issue.
4. Stephen Carlton (1805-1886), married three times, with issue by all three marriages.
5. William Carlton (1807-1875), the subject of this sketch.
6. Elizabeth Carlton (1808-1862), who married John Simmons and had issue.
7. Lydia Carlton (1812-1898), who married 1st James E. Hendry, 2nd Benj. Moody. Issue.
8. Rev. John Wright Carlton (1818-1894), who married Mrs. Susan Lee Murphy, nee Cason.
9. Martha Ann Carlton (1820-1900), who married Rev. Robt. McFail Hendry and had issue.

John Carlton was the third child and the eldest son of Thomas Carleton and his wife, Martha, of Duplin County, N. C. Thomas Carleton is said by some, including the late Milton D. Wilson of Bartow, Fla., to have been born in Chester County, Pa., on May 10, 1747; but this I have not been able to confirm to my satisfaction. Although there were Carletons in Chester County from 1711 or earlier until the time of the Revolutionary War or later, I have been unable to establish a definite connection between them and our own branch of the family. Neither have I been able to confirm that Thomas was descended from Edward Carleton of Rowley, Mass., who came to that colony with Rev. Ezekiel Rogers' company in 1638. Although this has been claimed by a number of people who have prepared abbreviated family histories, the descendants of Edward Carleton have been well accounted for up to the time of the Revolutionary War, at which time our branch of the family was already settled in North Carolina; and up to that time none of Edward's descendants had migrated southward. Thomas Carleton had an older brother, John Carleton, who settled in North Carolina prior to 1757, at which time his eldest son was born in Craven County; and he is said to have come from Chester County, Pa. This requires further research.

Thomas Carleton died in Duplin County, N. C., October 3, 1795, leaving a will which is on record in that county. In his will he named the following children as heirs: Rachel Anna, John, Lydia, Stephen, and Thomas. Another daughter, Elizabeth, married Rev. Peter Carlton, her cousin, son of Thomas's brother John, and died young and without issue.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

1776

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.

That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, - That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.

Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly, the experience of the United States has been that the same should not be changed for light and transient causes.

But when a long train of abuses, usurpations, going on without interruption, has evinced a design to reduce us to absolute Tyranny, it is our duty, it is our right, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for our future security. - Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, that they have borne the oppression and usurpation, and too long have acquiesced in the measures of the British Ministry.

Now, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, solemnly publish and declare, that the United States are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as free and independent States, they have full power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, enter into Commercials, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do.

In Testimony whereof, the Representatives of the United States of America, have signed this Declaration of Independence, and have caused it to be signed by the President of the United States, and have caused it to be signed by the President of the United States, and have caused it to be signed by the President of the United States.

Done at the City of New York, the fourth day of July, 1776.

The Descendants of
WILLIAM CARLTON
son of
John and Nancy Alderman Carlton

William Carlton, fifth child and fourth son of John Carlton and Nancy Ann Alderman, his wife, was born in Sampson County, N. C., on October , 1807 and died at Ft. Green, now in Hardee County, Fla., on December 16, 1875. He is buried in the cemetery at the Ft. Green Methodist Church.

Sometime prior to 1830, William Carlton moved to South Georgia. His name occurs on the census roll of Thomas County in 1830, on the census roll of Lowndes County in 1840, but on the census roll of Madison County, Fla., in 1850. About 1852 the family moved to Marion County, Fla., settling near Ft. McCoy where they remained for a number of years, at least until after 1858. Sometime after 1858 they moved to Ft. Green, then in Manatee County, now in Hardee County, Fla.

On December 24, 1829, probably in Lowndes County, Ga., William Carlton married Harriet Hendry, born March 28, 1812 in Liberty County, Ga., died at Ft. Green, Fla., May 23, 1898, daughter of William Hendry and Nancy McFail, his wife. William Hendry was born on Feb. 12, 1783 in New Hanover County, N. C., the third son of Robert Hendry (R. S.) and Ann Lee, his wife, said Robert Hendry having come to America from the Island of Arran, off the coast of Scotland, about 1750-55. Nancy McFail was born in Barnwell Co., S. C., on November 4, 1786, daughter of James McFail (R. S.) and his wife Judith.

For those interested in membership in patriotic organizations, all living members of this family recorded hereafter are eligible for membership in the Daughters of the American Revolution or the Sons of the American Revolution through the service of at least four of their ancestors, as follows:

- (1) Thomas Carleton, father of John and grandfather of William, served in the North Carolina Militia in Duplin County, N. C.
- (2) David Alderman, father of Nancy Ann Alderman Carlton and grandfather of William served in several capacities in North Carolina.
- (3) Robert Hendry, grandfather of Harriet Hendry Carlton, wife of William, rendered service and was awarded a land grant for his services.
- (4) James McFail, grandfather of Harriet Hendry Carlton, wife of William, rendered service to the American Colonies.

The English pedigrees of the Carlton and Carleton family, such as are available, indicate descent from a number of the Magna Charta Surety Barons; but we are unable to establish a definite connection between our ancestor Thomas Carleton and any specific branch of the English family. However, through our Alderman family connections, which family is descended from the Case and Spencer families of England and New England, descent from a number of the Surety Barons can be proven; and thus living females in this family tree are eligible for membership in the Magna Charta Dames, while living males are eligible for membership in the Sons of the Barons of Runnymede.

William and Harriet Hendry Carlton were the parents of twelve children, three of whom died in infancy or childhood. These children are as follows:

1. John Sales Carlton (1830-1862), who married Martha Jane Cason.
2. America J. Carlton (1832-1835), who died in early childhood.
3. James C. Carlton (1833-1864 or 1865), who married Martha Piety Grantham.
4. Nancy Carlton (1835-1917), who married Wesley Coker.
5. William Thomas Carlton (1838-1864), who died unmarried.
6. David Wright Carlton (1840-1858), who died unmarried in early manhood.
7. Robert Allen Carlton (1842-1928), who married Emma Adelaide Harrison.
8. Alderman G. W. Carlton (1843-1862), who died unmarried in the Civil War.
9. Mary Elizabeth Carlton (1845-1925), who married 1) John Grantham, 2) Robert Roberts.

COMMISSIONERS OF THE

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

10. Jency Adeline Carlton (1848-1851), who died in early childhood.
11. Steven Marion Carlton (1851-1852), who died in infancy.
12. Henry Eli Carlton (1854-1934), who married Cordelia Wilkison and Nina Daniels.

Second Generation
Children of William Carlton

1. John Sales Carlton was born, probably, in Lowndes Co., Ga., Dec. 6, 1830. He saw service in the Army of the Confederacy and became seriously ill while in service. As the story was handed down to my generation by my grandfather, he was sent home to recuperate and died at the home of relatives at Perry, Fla., June 28, 1862. He is buried in the old Friendship Cemetery near Moseley Hall, in the southern part of Madison County, Fla., and a stone identifies his grave. On December 4, 1851, in Madison Co., Fla., he married Martha Jane Cason, born Aug. 2, 1838, daughter of Silas Cason and Abigail Langford, his wife. After the war Martha Jane Carlton and her children moved to the vicinity of Ft. Green, Fla. where her father-in-law had settled; and she died there on Oct. 7, 1893. She is buried in the Ft. Green Methodist Church cemetery. Five children were born to this marriage, three sons and two daughters.

2. America J. Carlton was born in Lowndes Co., Ga., June 17, 1832 and died there on June 18, 1835. I have not learned of her burial place.

3. James C. Carlton was born, probably in Lowndes Co., Ga., Dec. 31, 1833 and died while serving with the Confederate Army in 1864 or 1865. I have not succeeded as yet in determining the circumstances of his death or where he is buried. On Nov. 20, 1856 he married Martha Piety Grantham, daughter of Rev. Daniel Grantham and Martha Roberts, his wife. After the death of James C. Carlton, Martha Grantham Carlton married secondly a man named Ward, by whom she had two children. Two children were born to her first marriage, Bascom Carlton and James Alpheus (Alf) Carlton.

4. Nancy Carlton was born in either Lowndes or Thomas Co., Ga., Dec. 2, 1835 and died in the vicinity of Limestone, Fla., March 19, 1917. On February 19, 1854 she was married to Wesley Coker, born Feb. 25, 1834, died Sept. 27, 1898, son of Daniel D. Coker and his wife Eunice. Both Nancy and Wesley Coker are buried in the Coker Cemetery just west of Peace River and about three miles southeast of Limestone, Fla. I have record of nine children.

5. William Thomas Carlton was born in either Lowndes or Thomas Co., Ga., on February 16, 1838. While serving with Company G, 4th Fla. Infantry, C. S. A., he was captured and imprisoned at Rock Island Military Prison, Rock Island, Ill. He died there on February 19, 1864 and is buried in the Confederate cemetery there. He was unmarried.

6. David Wright Carlton was born in Thomas Co., Ga., Dec. 5, 1840 and died Aug. 4, 1858. He apparently died while the William Carlton family was living at Ft. McCoy and he is buried in the Ft. McCoy cemetery.

7. Robert Allen Carlton was born at Thomasville, Ga., Feb. 16, 1842 and died at Ocala, Fla., Oct. 7, 1928. On March 30, 1870, near Ft. McCoy, Fla., he married Emma Adelaide Harrison, born in Meriwether Co., Ga., Oct. 14, 1848, died at Ocala, Fla., Aug. 3, 1936, daughter of Thomas Harrison and Mary Aylor, his wife. Robert Allen Carlton and his wife are buried at Ocala, Fla. They had eight children. Of five brothers serving with the Confederate Army, only Robert Allen Carlton lived through the conflict.

8. Alderman G. W. Carlton was born at Thomasville, Ga., Nov. 16, 1843 and died on March 18, 1862. He was a soldier in the Confederate Army and died in service, but the circumstances of his death and the place of death and burial are not known to me at this time.

9. Mary Elizabeth Carlton was born, probably in Thomasville, Ga., June 17, 1845 and died in the New Zion settlement on Horse Creek, in the western part of Hardee Co., Fla., May 7, 1925. On Sept. 1, 1859, probably at Ft. McCoy, Fla., she was married to John Grantham, born 1837, died in the Civil War, son of Rev. Daniel Grantham and Martha M. Roberts, his wife. One child, a daughter, was born to this marriage. On Sept. 3, 1865, in Marion Co., Fla., she married secondly Robert (Rob) Roberts, born in Irwin Co., Ga., June 19, 1842, died at New Zion, Hardee Co., Fla., Feb. 21, 1912, son of Joel Roberts and Sarah Youngblood, his wife. Both are buried in the New Zion cemetery. They had a large family whose records are as yet incomplete.

10. Jency Adeline Carlton was born, probably at Thomasville, Ga., Jan. 31, 1848 and died Aug. 3, 1851. The place of her death and burial have not been determined but was probably in Thomas Co. If she is buried at Ft. McCoy her grave is unmarked; and this is unlikely, since she has an older brother buried there whose grave is marked.

11. Steven Marion Carlton was born, probably in Thomasville, Ga., March 6, 1851 and died March 20, 1852. He probably died in Thomas County before the family moved to Florida or, if buried at Ft. McCoy, his grave is not marked.

12. Henry Eli Carlton (or Eli Hendry Carlton, as the name is recorded in the William Carlton family Bible) was born at Ft. McCoy, Fla., Nov. 15, 1854 and died at Arcadia, Fla., Sept. 30, 1934. About 1875, the exact date not known to me, he married first A. Cordelia Wilkison, born in Bradford Co., Fla., Aug. 6, 1856, died at Seabreeze, Fla., July 5, 1902, daughter of John Wilkison and Mary Ann Langford, his wife. By this marriage there were nine children, four sons and five daughters. On June 8, 1904, at Hawthorne, Fla., he married secondly Nina Daniels, born at Greenville, N. C., June 23, 1878, died at Arcadia, Fla., Sept. , 1960. No issue by the second marriage. Henry Carlton and both of his wives are buried in the Arcadia cemetery.

Third Generation Grandchildren of William Carlton

1. Children of John Sales Carlton², son of William Carlton¹.

1-1. Marion Gardner Carlton³ was born in Madison Co., Fla., Dec. 1, 1852 and died at his home in the Friendship Community, a few miles southeast of Zolfo Springs, Fla., Jan. 4, 1939. In 1869 he moved from Madison County to Ft. Green, then in Manatee Co., Fla., with his widowed mother and three younger children, and there he grew to manhood. On Feb. 9, 1873, at Bartow, Fla., he married Sarah Frances McKinney, born in Mississippi on Feb. 2, 1851, died at Zolfo Springs, Fla., Oct. 14, 1923, daughter of Thomas F. McKinney and Elizabeth Carson, his wife. In 1875 they settled in the woods about two miles west of the present town of Wauchula, Fla., and in 1879 they moved to the Friendship community where they spent the rest of their lives. Ten children were born to this marriage and all but one of the children lived to maturity. Marion G. Carlton, his wife, and several of the children are buried in the Friendship Methodist Church cemetery.

1-2. William Silas Carlton³ was born in Madison Co., Fla., Jan. 2, 1855 and died there on Jan. 28, 1863. He is buried in the old Friendship Cemetery near his father, and a single stone marks both graves. The name on the gravestone is "William Sales Carlton", but my grandfather (Marion G. Carlton) always spoke of him as "Silas." I assume he was named for his two grandfathers, William Carlton and Silas Cason.

1-3. James Henry Carlton³ was born in Madison Co., Fla., Nov. 23, 1856 and died at his home in the Friendship community southeast of Zolfo Springs, Fla., Oct. 25, 1933. On Feb. 3, 1876, in Polk Co., Fla., he married Mary Ellen Durrance, born Feb. 4, 1855, died Oct. 24, 1912, daughter of Jesse Durrance and Priscilla Altman, his wife. Ten children were born to this marriage, four dying in infancy and another in childhood. James H. Carlton subsequently married Mrs. Sollic Holzendorf, a widow, but had no issue by the second marriage. James H. Carlton, his first wife, and several of their children are uried in the Friendship Methodist Church cemetery in Hardee Co., Fla.

1-4. Sarah Mozelle Carlton³ was born in Madison Co., Fla., Oct. 27, 1858 and died at Ft. Green, Fla., March 19, 1889. She is buried in the cemetery at the Ft. Green Methodist Church. On Jan. 27, 1876 she was married to Rev. Francis M. (Mack) Durrance, born Sept. 2, 1854 at Bartow, Fla., died Dec. 2, 1902 in DeSoto Co., Fla., buried in the Joshua Creek cemetery. He was son of William Hutto Durrance and Sarah Harriet Robertson, his wife. Four children were born to this marriage.

1-5. Martha Susan Carlton³ (called Matt) was born in Madison Co., Fla., Aug. 4, 1861 and was fatally injured in an automobile wreck near Arcadia, Fla., Dec. 12, 1933. She is buried at Lily, Fla. On Dec. 13, 1877 she was married to John Rufus (Rufe) Durrance, born at Bartow, Fla., Oct. 29, 1856, died at Lily, Fla., Dec. 6, 1909, son of William Hutto Durrance and Sarah Harriet Robertson, his wife. They had eleven children, one of whom died in childhood.

Children of James C. Carlton², son of William Carlton¹.

3-1. Bascom Carlton³ was born Nov. 1, 1857, birthplace unknown to me, and died at Tampa, Fla., Aug. 11, 1926. On Jan. 29, 1879, probably at Ft. Green, Fla., he married Helen Hendry, born, probably at Ft. Green, Fla., Feb. 4, 1860, died at Tampa, Fla., March 10, 1955, daughter of A. J. (Ab) Hendry and Sarah Jane Moody, his wife. Bascom Carlton and his wife are buried at Tampa, but I do not know in which of the several cemeteries. They had four children, two sons and two daughters.

3-2. James Alpheus Carlton³, called Alf, was born July 14, 1860, birthplace unknown to me, and died at Wauchula, Fla., May 15, 1946. His first wife was Filouria Lenora Wilkison, born in Bradford Co., Fla., April 28, 1864, died at Wauchula, Fla., June 13, 1922, daughter of John Wilkison and Mary Ann Langford, his wife. The date and place of their marriage are unknown to me, though probably the date was about 1882. Both are buried in the Wauchula cemetery. Eleven children were born to this marriage! In 1924 James Alpheus Carlton married secondly Mrs. Helena Holzendorf Morrison, a widow. No issue from the second marriage.

Children of Nancy J. Carlton Coker², daughter of William Carlton¹.

4-1. Eunice Ann Coker³, called Nicey, was born in Madison Co., Fla., Jan. 28, 1855 and died at Ocala, Fla., March 9, 1947. She is buried in the Ft. McCoy cemetery. On Jan. 6, 1871, at Ft. McCoy, Fla., she was married to John Wesley Stephens, born at Meridian, Miss., Feb. 23, 1851, died at Ft. McCoy, Fla., Feb. 23, 1923, son of James Watson and Elizabeth Stephens. They had eleven children.

4-2. Daniel Coker³ was born in Madison Co., Fla., April 1, 1856 and died at Gardner, Fla., Nov. 7, 1953 at the advanced age of 97 years. On Oct. 7, 1875, at Pine Level, Fla., he married Mary Elizabeth Albritton, born in Alachua Co., Fla., Feb. 19, 1856, died at Gardner, Fla., March 7, 1946, daughter of Thomas W. Albritton and Frances Waldron, his wife. They settled first in the vicinity of Limestone, Fla., later moving across Peace River to where the community of Gardner now stands. Mr. and Mrs. Coker lived to celebrate their 70th wedding anniversary. Both were members of the Baptist church, and "Uncle Dan" was the last survivor of the old Pine Level Masonic lodge. They reared nine children.

4-3. Georgia Ann Coker³ was born, probably in Madison Co., Fla., March 18, 1858. She married Thomas G. Albritton, born April 6, 1854, son of Thomas H. Albritton and Frances Waldron, his wife. My records are extremely fragmentary, and I have record at this time of only one child, a daughter Lily.

4-4. William Wesley Coker³ was born Nov. 12, 1859, birthplace not determined but probably Madison Co., Fla., died Aug. 8, 1904. He married Arcade Albritton, born March 5, 1861, daughter of Thomas Albritton and sister to the wife of Daniel Coker. Arcade Albritton Coker was the woman for whom the city of Arcadia, Fla., was named. No further information is available at this time.

4-5. Nancy Ada Coker³ was born March 26, 1860 and died April 3, 1890. She was married to Sidney McQuade. No further information is available at this time.

4-6. John Thomas Coker³ was born Jan. 12, 1861, date and place of death unknown to me. He married Oregon Albritton, born Nov. 19, 1864, daughter of Thomas Albritton and Frances Aldron, his wife. No further information is available at this time.

4-7. Martha Jane Coker³ was born Sept. 26, 1867 in Manatee Co., Fla., and is living at Gardner, Fla., at this time (January 1962). She has lived in three counties - Manatee, DeSoto, and Hardee - without changing her place of residence. She married Budd Peter Clark, for whom I have no data, and they had eight children, of whom three survive today.

4-8. James H. Coker³ was born Jan. 11, 1871 in Manatee Co., Fla., and is living in Arcadia, Fla., in 1962. His first wife was Alven Williams and his second wife was Lena Amer. I have no information on either wife or on his family.

4-9. Cornelia F. Coker³ was born Nov. 18, 1878 in Manatee Co., Fla., died July 30, 1909, and is buried at Gardner, Fla. She was married to Sears Coker. I have no data on him or on their family.

5. Children of Robert Allen Carlton², son of William Carlton¹.

7-1. Mary Ella Carlton³ was born at Eureka, Fla., Jan. 16, 1871, died at St. Petersburg Beach, Fla., March 18, 1959, and is buried at Memorial Park, St. Petersburg. On Aug. 1, 1888, at Island Grove, Fla., she was married to Thomas Powe Ervin, born at Bennettsville, S. C., March 21, 1858, died at Citra, Fla., Oct. 20, 1897, son of Erasmus Powe Ervin and Mary Ann McCollum, his wife. He is buried at Citra. They had four children.

7-2. Harriet Eva Carlton³ was born at Eureka, Fla., April 22, 1872. She never married and is still living in the old home on North Sanchez Street, Ocala, Fla., or she was still living when last I heard in July of 1961.

7-3. Robert Alderman Carlton³ was born at Eureka, Fla., Jan. 5, 1874 and was still living in July of 1961, making his home in Jacksonville, Fla. On Sept. 2, 1908, at Mayport, Fla., he married Blanch Kemps, born at New Berlin, Fla., Dec. 13, 1888, assumed to be living in 1962, daughter of David Kemps and Georgia Frazier, his wife. They had three children, the first of whom died in infancy.

7-4. Thomas Harrison Carlton³ was born at Eureka, Fla., Dec. 29, 1875 and died there on July 1, 1878. He is buried in the Eureka cemetery.

7-5. William Henry Carlton³ was born at Eureka, Fla., Feb. 10, 1877, died at Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 23, 1943, and is buried at Jacksonville. On Dec. 30, 1903, at Conner, Fla., he married Julia Porter Graham, born June 4, 1884 at Conner, Fla., died Oct. 8, 1958 at Jacksonville, Fla., daughter of Lorentus Marsdale Graham and Pheriba Adeline Frink, his wife. They had three children. William Henry Carlton was a captain of St. John's Riverboats and was the last captain of the Clyde Line's steamer "City of Jacksonville."

7-6. Albert Marvin Carlton³ was born at Eureka, Fla., Feb. 6, 1879, died at Jacksonville, Fla., May 31, 1919, and is buried at Ocala, Fla. On Feb. 7, 1900 at Eureka, Fla., he married Leone McQuaig, born Feb. 25, 1880 at Eureka, Fla., died April 20, 1959 at Miami, Fla., buried at Jacksonville, daughter of William Alexander McQuaig and Isabelle Higgenbotham, his wife. They had three children, two of whom died at birth.

7-7. James Frederick Carlton³ was born at Eureka, Fla., Jan. 1, 1881 and is living in Petersburg, Fla., in 1962. On Oct. 10, 1910, at Memphis, Tenn., he married Nannie Win-from Jones, born at Sheffield, Ala., Oct. 14, 1889, living 1962. They have one daughter.

7-8. Clarence Jefferson Carlton³ was born at Eureka, Fla., Aug. 10, 1882, died at the old home in Ocala, Fla., April 1, 1960, and is buried in Woodlawn Cemetery at Ocala. On June 3, 1911, in Memphis, Tenn., he married Lelia Bennett, born in Nashville, Tenn., Sept.
1893. They had one son.

Children of Mary Elizabeth Carlton Grantham Roberts², daughter of William Carlton¹.

9-1. Mary Jane Grantham³ was born Jan. 8, 1861 and died Jan. 15, 1894. The place of her birth was probably at or near Ft. McCoy, Fla., and the place of her death is not known to me. She married Dan B. Lott, born Jan. 18, 1854, and they had eight children.

9-2. Florence Fay Roberts³ was born May 17, 1866, birthplace unknown to me, and died Sept. 10, 1959 in the Oak Grove community west of Wauchula, Fla. She is buried in the New Zion cemetery in the western part of Hardee County, Fla. On Aug. 9, 1885 at New Zion she was married to Delaney Jackson Farabee, a native of Georgia, born Dec. 1, 1859. They had twelve children.

died in 1957. He married Mary Ada Gillis, born Jan. 8, 1875, died Nov. 3, 1944. Both are buried in the New Zion cemetery. I have records of three children.

9-4. William Albert Roberts³ was born May 19, 1870 and is, so far as the writer knows, living in the New Zion section of Hardee Co., Fla., in 1962. He married Florrie Revells, for whom I have no data, and I have record of three children born to this marriage.

9-5. Florenna Roberts³ was born at Wauchula, Fla., Feb. 20, 1872, died March 29, 1949, and is buried at Wauchula. On July 26, 1887, at Wauchula, Fla., she was married to Joseph E. Simmons, born in Thomas Co., Ga., Jan. 16, 1863, died at Wauchula, Fla., Nov. 14, 1950, son of Lacy J. Simmons and Nancy Milton, his wife. Five children were born to this marriage.

9-6. Alderman Roberts³, called Aulie, was born near Wauchula, Fla., May 10, 1876, died Oct. 14, 1918, and is buried in the New Zion cemetery. He married Mattie Durrance, born July 3, 1878, living in Ona, Fla., 1962, daughter of Francis Marion (Frank) Durrance and Louisa Permelia Barrington, his wife. They had at least six children for whom my records are incomplete.

the New Zion settlement in 1962. On April 26, 1903, at Ft. Meade, Fla., he married Jessie Durrance, born Aug. 11, 1883 at Ft. Meade, Fla., daughter of Francis Marion (Frank) Durrance and Louisa Permelia Barrington, his wife. They had three daughters.

9-10. Robert Roberts³ was born near Wauchula, Fla., Feb. 9, 1884 and is living at Immokalee, Fla., in 1962. He is one of South Florida's most prominent cattlemen. On Dec. 29, 1901, at New Zion, he married Henrietta (Henrie) Cordell, born at New Zion on Nov. 29, 1882, living 1962, daughter of Albert J. Cordell and Lettie Ann Luticia Cobb, his wife. They have nine children.

9-11. Robert Allen Roberts³ was born near Wauchula, Fla., June 25, 1874, died Nov. 20, 1920, and is buried in the New Zion cemetery. His first wife was Frankie Albritton, daughter of George Albritton, for whom I have no data. His second wife was Maude Boggess, a daughter of Capt. Boggess of Ft. Ogden, Fla. I have record of only one child, a daughter who died young.

12. Children of Henry Eli Carlton², son of William Carlton¹.

12-1. Lillie Carlton³ was born at Ft. Green, Fla., Jan. 20, 1876, died at Gainesville, Fla., Feb. 23, 1957, and is buried at Gainesville. On Feb. 26, 1900 she married Walter L. Smith but the marriage was short lived, ending, I believe, in divorce. On Aug. 23, 1905 she married Harvey D. Mason, born at Monticello, Mo., Aug. 14, 1860, died at Dunellon, Fla., April 8, 1934, son of Harvey George Mason and Mary E. Fuqua, his wife. They had two children.

This concludes the information that I have been able to gather on the descendants of William Carlton and Harriet Hendry, his wife, up to April 11, 1963. There are gaps in the records, however, because of my inability to contact certain members of the family and because of the reluctance of some members of the family to furnish information about themselves and others of their family. Errors in dates and places of births and deaths and marriages are probably present; and for these I offer my apologies but disclaim responsibility. I have recorded such data as they were sent to me by others.

I have made a sincere attempt to trace direct Carlton lines out to the most recent arrivals. That is, the male line of descent is as complete as present records will permit me to give it. Female lines, however, are generally terminated with the second generation, that is, with the grandchildren of those women, Carltons by birth, who married into other families.

Readers are invited, even urged to send to the writer any further information that they can contribute to this genealogy. Any bit of data, no matter how small, is wanted in order that this family history may be both complete and accurate.

ADDENDA

- 3. Georgia Ann Coker³ was born at Ft. McCoy, Fla., March 18, 1858 and died Jan. 6, 1929. On April 15, 1875 she married Thomas G. Albritton, born April 6, 1854, died Sept. 15, 1933. Both are buried in the cemetery at Lily, west of Limestone, Fla. Their children were as follows --
 - 4-3-1. Lily Albritton⁴ was born March 26, 1880 at Lily, Fla., and is living in 1963. On Oct. 15, 1899 she married Samuel Whidden and had issue.
 - 4-3-2. Vashtie Albritton⁴ was born Feb. 25, 1885 at Lily, Fla., and is living at this time. On Sept. 27, 1908 she married Albert Abbott.
 - 4-3-3. Annie V. Albritton⁴ was born Aug. 4, 1886 at Lily, Fla., died June 23, 1933. On March 19, 1911 she married Alonzo (Lonnie) Long.
 - 4-3-4. Bertha Albritton⁴ was born Sept. 1, 1888 at Lily, Fla., and is assumed to be living in 1963. On June 17, 1909 she married Wesley Roberts.
 - 4-3-5. Rev. Sidney L. Albritton⁴ was born Oct. 7, 1889 at Lily, Fla., and now lives at Arcadia, Fla. On Aug. 17, 1913 he married Bertie Lane.
 - 4-3-6. Ada Albritton⁴ was born Oct. 11, 1891 at Lily, Fla., and is assumed to be living at this time. On Sept. 20, 1914 she married Aden Skipper.
 - 4-3-7. Walter W. Albritton⁴ was born Aug. 19, 1893 at Lily, Fla. On Dec. 23, 1914 he married Cora Harris.
 - 4-3-8. Donnie Albritton⁴ was born Nov. 9, 1896 at Lily, Fla. On Jan. 26, 1918 she married Joseph Newberry.
- 4. William Wesley Coker³ probably was born at Ft. McCoy, Fla., instead of in Madison Co., Fla. His wife's name was Arcadia Albritton, not Arcade. Their burial place has not yet been determined but may be in the Coker cemetery a few miles southeast of the town of Limestone, Fla. They had eight children, as follows --
 - 4-4-1. Adna Coker⁴ was born Jan. 3, 1882 and is still living and active despite her 81 years. She married first Brewster Gause, by whom she had a number of children. After his death she married George Albritton, now deceased.
 - 4-4-2. W. Harley Coker⁴ was born Sept. 26, 1884 and died Oct. 3, 1929. He married Sophronia Dyad. No further information.
 - 4-2-3. Olen C. Coker⁴ was born Dec. 10, 1886 and is living. His wife is the former Ethel Ingram. No further information.
 - 4-2-4. Pearl V. Coker⁴ was born Nov. 3, 1889 and is living in 1963. She is married to John Trawick.
 - 4-2-5. Arthur A. Coker⁴ was born Dec. 19, 1891 and died in boyhood on Sept. 19, 1898.
 - 4-2-6. Baston C. Coker⁴ was born Oct. 3, 1894 and is living in 1963. He is married to the former Amzie Smith.
 - 4-2-7. Ethel B. Coker⁴ was born Feb. 6, 1898. She married Randolph Bonard.
 - 4-2-8. Clyde W. Coker⁴ was born Oct. 13, 1900. He married Mae Ida Youngblood.
- 5. Nancy Ada Coker³ and her husband Sidney McQuade are buried in the Ft. McCoy (Fla.) cemetery. They had no children.

- 4-6. John Thomas Coker³ died Oct. 10, 1944 and is buried at Gardner, Fla. Oregon Albritton Coker died in the Arcadia (Fla.) Hospital on Dec. 9, 1935 and is buried at Gardner. They were married April 8, 1885 and they had seven children. According to records from the Albritton family Bible, published in the Georgia Genealogical Magazine for April 1963, his name was Thomas Jonathan Coker; but the name as I have given it above is the way it was given me by members of his family.
- 4-7. Martha Jane Coker³ married Budd Peter Clark on Feb. 5, 1888. He was born in September of 1849 but I have not learned his birthplace.
